

February PROMises

Just for Fun!!

From us at Landons to you, welcome to 2021. Whilst we are entering this new year with a little uncertainty as to what may be around the corner, here at Landons we are trying our very hardest to keep morale high. We wish to share with you some of our highlights of lockdown in 2020, to try our best to send our good wishes to you:

1. Our Amy, who supports the private client department here at Landons was able to move house in lockdown number 2! Whilst moving house is already one of life's more stressful challenges, adding lockdown into the mix did mean that Amy's experience of moving house was a memorable one – shall we say! It is a good job that Amy has the patience of a saint and is one of life's optimists. We are lucky to have her in our team.

2. Our Trainee Solicitor Alisha was able to get married on 16 December, in lockdown number 3. Whilst she was only able to have close family in attendance, the day was one to remember. The weather even held out for the photos! Alisha is now Mrs Francis-Webb and works in our family department.

2. We had the new arrival of our baby son into our family on 20 December. Lockdown number 3 meant I was able to spend very special time with my husband and my 17 month old daughter was able to practice her new role as big sister. I am still wondering whether we are brave or crazy have two children under 18 months... to be confirmed!

As always, I am a friendly voice on the end of the phone should you ever need help or guidance

Sending my best wishes to you all

Lifes Promise

I'm getting older, day by day
Some friends I knew have passed away
When thinking of the joy we had
I cannot help but feeling sad

My garden looks just how I feel
Dark and blown and so unreal
The winter took its toll there too
Flowers gone – and colours few

Yet looking closer I can see
Bulbs rising upwards to be free
Naked boughs speckled with green
And roots and shoots are to be seen

Then I take heart, and spirits soar
For here is life, come round once more
And with a promise of hope and love
Of life renewed from him above.

A New Year and some new stuff

Christmas has gone and we are into the new year, although the days begin to get longer, we still need to make our houses look occupied when we are not in and do what we can to protect our property.

Create the "Illusion of Occupancy", when its dark, make your home look like you are in. Leave lights on or put them on timers or day-light sensors to come when it gets dark. Remember though no one lives in the hall or on the landing so if you leave these lights on supplement these with lights on in rooms that you would normally occupy at that time of day i.e. lounge and kitchen. A carefully placed imitation TV or "Fake TV" can further add to that illusion of occupancy by making it look like the television is on. Some burglars may also listen at windows or letterboxes for sign of activity, so consider leaving a radio on within your home.

Don't forget the outside of your property too, if burglars see that it is lit, they are less likely to approach for fear of being seen.

Leave lights on, with energy efficient bulbs it costs very little now days and yet may save you lots!

A remotely monitored doorbell can let you know who is at your door and let you talk to them making it appear that you are in, there are number of these available now such as "Ring" and "Nest".

Happy Birthday to anyone who is celebrating a birthday this month!
